

TEFL Training College

Academic record for

Edmunds, Jason Paul

Student number: 0672134

Date of Birth: 26/01/1968

The Certificate of Educational Studies in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages is awarded to candidates who have satisfactorily fulfilled all the requirements of the course. They will have shown potential development after the course, in awareness of language learning problems and of classroom techniques.

2004: Certificate of Educational Studies in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (150 hrs.)

	Mark
Module: The World of ELT and Study Skills	65%
Module: The Study of English	72%
Module: The Teaching and learning of English to speakers of other languages	81%
Module: Lesson Planning and Preparation	58%
Practical: Teaching / Classroom Observation (6 hrs.)	Completed

The Certificate course enables candidates to:

1. Develop an awareness of language and a knowledge of the description of English and apply these in their professional practice;
2. Develop an initial understanding of the contexts within which young learners and adults learn English, their motivations and the roles of the teacher and the learner;
3. Develop familiarity with the principles and practice of effective teaching to young and adult learners of English;
4. Develop basic skills for teaching young learners and adults in the language classroom;
5. Develop familiarity with appropriate resources and materials for use with young and adult learners of English for teaching, testing and for reference;
6. Identify opportunities for their own future development as professionals in the field.

This candidate has satisfied the course requirements to be awarded the Certificate of Educational Studies in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages.

End of Academic Record**

Authorised Certifying Officer

Date issued: 23 Feb 2004

Principal

Academic Director

Issue without correction or erasure